

Private Events Catered Just like old times.

Deanie's Seafood Restaurant in the French Quarter can make your special event a party to remember through our banquet and catering services. We have been serving the best boiled, broiled and fried seafood around for nearly 50 years – so when you come to Deanie's you are guaranteed to enjoy a classic New Orleans seafood experience. Not only have we been consistently rated by fellow New Orleanians as their favorite seafood restaurant, we have also received numerous accolades including features on the Food Network and the Travel Channel, as well as a 2009 Zagat food and service rating of "very good to excellent."

Opened in 2001, our French Quarter restaurant is located in the historic D.H. Holmes department store annex. This section of the building formerly housed a gourmet candy counter, deli and cafeteria – and features a casual, retro atmosphere. Serving the same delicious, traditional New Orleans seafood as our original Bucktown restaurant, our French Quarter location also has wonderful amenities including three private dining rooms (Main Dining Room, Madden Room, Iberville Room) and a beautiful courtyard for parties and other private events. In addition, we provide off-site catering services.

Our private dining rooms can be set up for buffet-style events, banquet-style events or receptions.

Our facilities are ideal for events including:

- Business Meetings
- Garden/Bridal Lunches
- Rehearsal Dinners
- Receptions
- Birthdays
- Reunions
- Anniversaries
- Baby Showers
- Holiday Parties
- Seafood Boils

Please note that private dining capacity may vary due to table arrangement, bar set-up and audiovisual equipment.

The banquet and catering services offered by Deanie's Seafood are a great value. We provide customized menus for each place setting and house floral arrangements at no additional charge. Our special events coordinator is available to assist you in arranging for additional decorations and entertainment. And if you book the Iberville Room, the courtyard is included at no additional venue charge.

Our banquet pricing includes tax and gratuity, which makes budgeting even easier when you choose Deanie's Seafood Restaurant. In addition, we accept most major credit cards.
